

Manitou Evangelical Free Church (MEFC) is seeking a fulltime pastor for our fellowship in Neilburg, Saskatchewan.

MEFC is a rural, congregational church drawing from several surrounding communities including the village of Marsden, only 14 km to the west. We are situated in a predominately agricultural area, surrounded also with the oilfield industry which provides stability and employment to our population.

Our church family is diverse in age and ethnicity, and we seek to provide biblical teaching, love and encouragement through various ministries to all. We currently have an active youth outreach, Sunday school classes, mid-week Bible studies for all ages, and support numerous missions locally and abroad. Our attendance hovers between 85 and 100 people, and membership roll is 52.

Manitou Lake Bible Camp (MLBC) is located only a short 15 minute drive to the southwest, and our congregation has been closely linked to its ministries from inception (1940). MEFC continues to minister there both practically serving in all capacities as well as financially, and we see MLBC as vital to sharing the gospel and outreach in our communities.

The villages of Neilburg and Marsden offer the necessities of business, recreation and education in a friendly, small town atmosphere. Community residents can access grocery, mechanical, banking and postal services, as well as enjoy activities such as baseball, hockey, bowling, youth soccer and 4H. A K-12 public school is situated in Neilburg, with school bus service provided from Marsden and surrounding areas designated by the Northwest School Division.

MEFC seeks to fill our pastoral position with a humble man who stands on God's word as true, is devoted to prayer, and is evidently empowered by the Holy Spirit. We believe it is imperative for him to have a love for people in order to fulfill the role with a "Shepherd's heart." We uphold the biblical standards for pastoral leadership as outlined in Titus 1:6-9 and in 1Timothy 3.

MEFC is a member of the Evangelical Free Church of Canada (EFCC), and our leadership and members align with those core beliefs. Our Statement of Faith and Vision Statement are accessible on the website: manitouefc.com

Applicant must have achieved a BA Degree in Biblical or Pastoral Studies and have the ability to effectively communicate the scriptures through teaching and preaching.

We welcome applicants who seek to discern God's call to come and minister here with us at MEFC. Please contact MEFC Board Member Mel Letkeman: mefcchurchboard@gmail.com
